Caroline Burke Designs is a boutique interior design firm specializing in interior design and decorating. Caroline lived in Manhattan Beach for many years before opening her business in 2003 with the vision of helping clients create a beautiful home where they can unwind and be at peace. A graduate of Skidmore College, she also attended the London School of Economics and then went on to UCLA to follow her passion for interior design. Caroline's team of four has worked on more than 40 homes in the South Bay and has also decorated spaces in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, Hawaii and New York City.

DRAWING INSPIRATION

“My work inspirations come in many forms ... people, nature, patterns on glass. I also have a love for travel and a huge appreciation for five-star resorts, which often have a lot of influence on my design.”

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

“The most rewarding part of my work is to see how it really changes lives. People are happier and healthier in the environments that we create for them. They always come home and LOVE to be there.”
